

Edgewood

www.edgewoodiowa.com

Edgewood is where the best rodeo action in Northeast Iowa can be found. Annually, during the last full weekend in June, Edgewood hosts a PRCA rodeo. Professional cowboys & cowgirls perform & compete. Many other fun activities are held during the weekend. Visitors are sure to leave with a smile.

Recreational opportunities include a swimming pool, tennis courts, cross country skiing & much more.

The community's golf course has been recognized as one of the best in the state.

Some of Iowa's finest trout & small mouth bass streams are found near Edgewood due to constant stocking by the state fish hatchery. The bustling downtown & the community at large houses numerous businesses for visitors to shop & explore.

Elkader

www.elkader-iowa.com

Elkader, recipient of the Great American Main Street Award & the Cultural & Entertainment District

designation lies between the bluffs of Clayton County on the Turkey River. The river offers a great place for canoeing & tubing & many nearby streams are stocked for trout fishing. Historic Elkader, with nine structures on the National Register of Historic Places, sports unique shops in a vital business district.

Alpine Communications is constructing a state-of-the-art fiber optic network to all homes and businesses in Elkader and Guttenberg in 2007.

Garnavillo

www.garnavilloia.com

Garnavillo is located five miles from the Mississippi River on Highway 52 in Northeast Iowa. Fishing & hunting abound throughout the Garnavillo area. B & Bs & campgrounds are nestled in the scenic valleys & hills surrounding Garnavillo.

In the heart of downtown Garnavillo visitors are welcomed to a city park with a shelter & playground. Next to the city park is the Garnavillo Historical Museum containing thousands of early manuscripts dating back to 1750.

Garnavillo's growth & hospitality can be seen in the outstanding attendance at their annual 4th of July celebration, which is the largest in Clayton County.

Guttenberg

www.naturallyguttenberg.com

Guttenberg, one of "Iowa's Great Places", welcomes you to trace history and touch the Mississippi River. Nestled along a limestone bluff in Northeast Iowa, Guttenberg is a natural place for families to live or vacation. Only its vibrant community spirit matches Guttenberg's extraordinary natural beauty. It is the natural place to live, work and play.

The benefits of fiber optics are many: incredibly fast Internet service, greater reliability, economic vitality, and increased home values.

Marquette

www.mcgreg-marq.org

Marquette is nestled among the towering bluffs & borders the mighty Mississippi River. Boasting a rare vista of natural beauty & representing a story of rich history, Marquette has so much to offer. Experience hiking amid spectacular views while learning about Native American history at Effigy Mounds National Monument. Learn of the town's rich history at the Depot Museum & Information Center. Enjoy antique stores, lodging, boating, fishing & restaurants & try your luck at the area's full service riverboat casino.

McGregor

www.mcgreg-marq.org

McGregor's Main Street guides visitors through the vale of two majestic bluffs leading them right to the edge of the Mississippi River. Listed on the National Register of Historic Places & boasting well-preserved 19th century architecture, McGregor's Commercial Historic District offers an array of antique stores, bookstores, specialty shops & restaurants. Enjoy an underground boat ride at Spook Cave & Campground & experience magnificent views from Pikes Peak State Park. Cozy lodging choices such as cabins, B&Bs, inns, hotels & motels welcome visitors who stay to experience the town's endless treasures.

