

Holiday Walk

December 6th, 6-8pm
Osborne Nature Center

Clayton County Conservation presents

“Let It Snow”

You will encounter characters on this short illuminated hike through the Osborne trails that will help you understand why snow is a cause for celebration. Afterwards enjoy cookies, cocoa, and Christmas music by the Central Madrigal Choir.

The event is free but a donation of bird feed such as thistle and black oil sunflower seed is requested.

